ABOUT COMMUNITY MEDIATION SCHOOL CORPS: The Community Mediation School Corps (CMSC) is a partnership between the NY Unified Court System and Community Dispute Resolution Centers (CDRC) across the state to provide a variety of conflict resolution services in NY public schools. We recruit AmeriCorps members to become embedded in their local communities to help teach youth positive ways of dealing with conflict.

ABOUT AMERICORPS: AmeriCorps is a network of local, state, and national service programs that connects more than 75,000 Americans each year in intensive service to meet our country's critical needs in education, public safety, health, and the environment. AmeriCorps programs focus on work to improve lives, strengthen communities, and foster civic engagement through service and volunteering.

ABOUT LIDRC: The Long Island Dispute Resolution Centers (LIDRC) provide conflict resolution services that help individuals, families, schools, businesses, and the community at large to resolve a wide range of disputes. Last year, LIDRC provided services to over 11,000 Long Island residents.

APPLY NOW: Interested individuals who are self-motivated, committed to grassroots community change, and willing to learn should complete AmeriCorps application by visiting:
