

30-Hour Basic Mediation Training

WHERE: EAC Network, Long Island Dispute Resolution Centers (LIDRC)
175 Fulton Avenue, 4th Floor Conference Room
Hempstead, NY 11550

WHEN: January 22, 23, 24, & 25, 2019 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

ABOUT THE TRAINER: Elena Bayrock Sapora first began mediating when she was fifteen as a peer mediator at Thomas Tallis Secondary School in London. This formative experience solidified Elena's deep commitment to encouraging direct constructive dialogue as a way to strengthen relationships and communities. Elena has trained audiences of all ages on mediation, conflict resolution, and effective communication. With a background in theater and movement, Elena's trainings are active, energetic, and engaging. She respects all learning styles and supports each person as they integrate new learning and skills. In addition to her training experience, Elena has presented on various topics at national conferences, such as the Association for Conflict Resolution and American Bar Association Dispute Resolution. Elena is a certified Initial Mediation Trainer by the New York State Unified Court System Office of ADR and Court Improvement Programs.

Part 146 Approved—This training is approved by the NYS Unified Court System's Office of ADR Programs for minimum qualification to be on court mediation panels (please note that final placement on any court roster is at the discretion of the local Administrative Judge and participation in a course that is either approved or pending approval does not guarantee placement on a local court roster.)

You should take this training if:

- * You want to develop conflict management skills
- * You want to enhance your communication and listening skills
- * You are interested in learning the art of mediation
- * You want to learn more about the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) profession.

This training includes:

- * Extensive Mediation Training over the course of 4 days including theory, lecture, role plays, demonstration, and group exercises
