

NYC Intern-Volunteer Placement Options

Revised for 2020

	NYC Community Re-Entry Assistance Network (CRAN)	Brooklyn Treatment Alternatives for Safer Communities (TASC)	Brooklyn Mental Health Court Advocacy Program	Queens TASC, Treatment Court & Mental Health Diversion Program	Bronx CIRT (Court-based Intervention & Resource Team)
What year interns do you accept for placement?	Juniors, Seniors and Masters level students majoring in social work, forensic psychology, or a behavioral science. Two-day minimum commitment required. Spanish speaking a plus	Juniors, Seniors and Masters level students majoring in criminal justice, psychology, public health, social work or any behavioral science. Spanish speaking a plus	Masters level students majoring in social work, forensic psychology, or a behavioral science. 2 full day commitment required. Spanish speaking a plus	Masters level students majoring in criminal justice, forensic psychology, social work, any behavioral science Spanish speaking a plus	Masters level social work students. Either 1 st or 2 nd year Spanish speaking a plus
Hours/days internships are available	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours Tuesday Thursday and Friday 9-5 Monday and Wednesday 9:00AM-6:30PM)	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours Monday 8AM-7PM and Tuesday– Friday) 8AM-5PM	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours 9-5; Monday – Friday)	Flexible hours and days, minimum of 2 days per week (Office Hours 9-5 Monday – Friday)	21 hours a week – 3 days Flexible hours 9am – 5pm Monday - Friday
Population served	Individuals with severe mental illness who are reentering New York City from Rikers Island, Additionally, in Brooklyn, Staten Island and Manhattan, mentally ill and chemically addicted clients with open Supreme or Criminal court cases. Age 16 years or older, living in any of the 5 boroughs.	Criminal justice involved defendants with substance abuse issues who have or are at risk for contracting HIV TCE/HIV program deals with clients that are at risk for contracting HIV and have a mild mental health diagnosis	Criminal justice involved defendants identified at the point of arraignment who need psychiatric services.	The Queens Mental Health Diversion Program works with clients involved in the criminal justice system who are seriously mentally ill and may also have a substance abuse problem. The TASC program works with criminal justice involved defendants with substance abuse issues who are at risk for contracting HIV and/or Hep C	Clients involved in the criminal justice system who are seriously mentally ill & may have substance abuse problems
Where placement is located?	175 Remsen Street 5 th Floor Brooklyn, NY 11201	175 Remsen Street 5 th Floor Brooklyn, NY 11201	175 Remsen Street 5 th Floor Brooklyn, NY 11201	120-34 Queens Blvd. Suite 410 Kew Gardens, NY 11415	1020 Grand Concourse Bronx, NY 10451
Contact information	tsheehan@eacnyc.org	halgarin@nyctasc.org	gherman@eacnyc.org	jackerman@nyctasc.org	kedwards@eacnyc.org

NYC Intern Placement Options

Revised for 2020

	Bronx Treatment Alternatives for Safer Communities (TASC)	Bronx Mental Health Court	Staten Island Treatment Alternatives for Safer Communities (TASC) & Staten Island Mental Health Diversion	Enhanced Employment Initiative	Staten Island Court-based Intervention & Resource Team (CIRT)
What year interns do you accept for placement?	Juniors, Seniors and Masters level students majoring in criminal justice, psychology, social work or any behavioral science Preferably Spanish speaking	Masters level students majoring in forensic psychology, social work or any behavioral science, Doctoral level clinical psychology externs, Psychiatry residents & Forensic Psychiatry fellows Preferably Spanish speaking	Juniors, Seniors and Masters level students majoring in criminal justice, forensic psychology, social work, public health or any behavioral science	Students majoring in psychology, social work, vocational counseling, vocational psychology or any behavioral science	Bachelors level students majoring in Social Work for BSW degree or Masters level students majoring in forensic psychology, social work or any behavioral science
Hours/days internships are available	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours 8-5 Monday – Friday)	2-day weekly commitment preferred Flexible hours (Office Hours 9-5 Monday – Friday)	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours 8-5 Monday – Friday)	Flexible hours and days (Office Hours 8-5 Monday – Friday)	Minimum 2-day weekly commitment preferred Flexible hours (Office Hours 9-5 Monday – Friday)
Population served	Criminal justice involved defendants with substance abuse issues	Clients involved in the criminal justice system who are seriously mentally ill & may have substance abuse problems	Criminal justice involved adults and adolescents with substance abuse and mental health issues	TANF eligible TASC clients who are in need of educational and vocational services.	Clients involved in the criminal justice system who have identified mental health issues and possible co-occurring substance abuse issues
Where placement is located?	1020 Grand Concourse 1 st floor Bronx, NY 10451	1020 Grand Concourse 1 st floor Bronx, NY 10451	120 Stuyvesant Place Suite 410 Staten Island NY 10301	Brooklyn, Bronx and Queens TASC offices	120 Stuyvesant Place Suite 410 Staten Island NY 10301
Contact information	ycardona@nyctasc.org	jloveland@eacnyc.org	Cstanton@nyctasc.org	ccrandle@nyctasc.org	asass-diaz@eacnyc.org