

Nassau Intern-Volunteer Placement Options

Revised for 2020

	Nassau Supervised Visitation	Nassau TASC (Treatment Alternatives for Safer Communities)	New Path Treatment Center (formerly OUTPATIENT CLINIC)	STOPLIFT/Anger Management Program
What year interns do you accept for placement?	Bachelor's or 1 st Year Masters level students, preferably in Psychology and/or Social Work 2 nd year students from community colleges with concentration in social services also accepted	Sophomore level undergraduate through Graduate students. Preferably students from the criminal justice, social work or psychology field	CASAC or Masters level students, preferably in Social Work or Psychology	Sophomore level undergraduate through Graduate students preferably students from the criminal justice, social work or psychology field. Also, computer and/or business experience a big plus.
Hours/days internships are available	Tuesdays & Thursdays, flexible hours & Saturdays 9:00AM-1PM	Monday through Friday, flexible hours	Flexible days, hours vary Some possible evenings	Flexible days and hours
Population served	Families involved in Family Court, DSS or Foster Care system experiencing high conflict divorce, separation, visitation and custody issues	Non-violent offenders whose substance abuse is related to their criminal offense.	Individuals 18 years and older with substance abuse disorders. A large percentage of the clients are involved in the Criminal Justice System	First time offending adults and juveniles presently involved with the courts
Where placement is located?	Office in Hempstead	Office in Hempstead	Office in Hempstead	Office in Hempstead
Contact information	Dorothy.Worrell@eac-network.org	Rhonda.Wainwright-Jones@eac-network.org	Sherri.Flournoy@eac-network.org	Breenzy.Fernandez@eac-network.org

Nassau Intern-Volunteer Placement Options

Revised for 2020

	Long Island Dispute Resolution Centers (LIDRC)	Community Services Program	Nassau C.A.S.A. (Court Appointed Special Advocates)	Project Support/EIP
What year interns do you accept for placement?	Bachelor level students preferably in the field of Conflict Resolution	Bachelor or Master level students in the Criminal Justice, Social Work or a related field	Undergraduate Junior and Senior students or Master's preferably in Social Work, Psychology or Criminal Justice	Sophomore level undergraduate through Graduate students preferably students from the criminal justice, social work or psychology field
Hours/days internships are available	Monday through Friday 9am to 5pm, evenings a possibility	Flexible days some Saturdays	Flexible days and hours
Population served	Local communities at large, parents of children with special needs, school districts, youth, families, consumer/merchants, persons with Developmental Disabilities, DSS recipients	Individuals court mandated to complete community service hours in lieu of jail time or residential placement	Children in foster care or adjudicated neglected at ages 0-21yrs old	Flexible days, hours vary
Where placement is located?	Offices in Hempstead (and Hauppauge)	Office in Hempstead (and Hauppauge)	Office in Hempstead	Clients involved in the court system who have failed to maintain their financial obligations in child support payments Office in Westbury
Contact information	Judy.Axelrod@eac-network.org	Trudi.McKenley@eac-network.org	Andrea.Ramos-Topper@eac-network.org	Rachel.Lugo@eac-network.org