ABOUT CASA

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs) are professionally-trained, objective community volunteers appointed by Family Court to advocate for children who are in out-of-home placement or who are at risk of being placed in foster care.

CASAs monitor a child's medical and mental health, educational needs, well-being and permanency planning. Key to a CASA's work is regular visits with the child or children to whom they are assigned.

CASA is appointed by court order to collaborate with others involved in a child's case and gather information from all interested persons including parents, foster parents, teachers, case managers, doctors, therapists, attorneys, other service providers and the child. CASA provides fact-based reports to assist the court in addressing the child's needs and in determining what is in their best interest.

Many children assigned to CASA are safely reunified with the parents. In other cases, children and youth are permanently placed with relatives or are adopted. CASA's ultimate goal is for children to grow up in permanent, safe, healthy family homes.

WHAT IS THE NEW YORK STATE OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES?

The New York State Office of Victim Services (OVS) provides guidance and support to the network of Victim Assistance Programs, which includes Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA). OVS provides this guidance and support in order to assist children and others who have been the victims of crime in accessing needed services.

CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION

Children assigned to CASA as a result of an abuse or neglect proceeding in Family Court may be eligible for Victim Compensation. OVS may be able to help with expenses related to the crime of which they were a victim.

HOW CAN CASA AND OVS HELP?

By completing a Victim Assistance Application, children and youth may have lifelong access to supportive services. These can include counseling, travel reimbursement, medical care and other items that are related to having been the victims of abuse or neglect and that cannot be paid for by other sources or coverage.

Pursuant to Article 15 of the Executive Law (also known as the Human Rights Law) and all other State and Federal statutory and constitutional nondiscrimination provisions, CASANYS will not discriminate against any applicant for victim assistance because of race, creed (religion), color, sex (including gender expression), national origin, sexual orientation, military status, age, disability, predisposing genetic characteristic, marital status or domestic violence victim status. More info at ovs.ny.gov.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION?

CASA staff and volunteers are here to assist with the filing of Victim Assistance Applications with the New York State Office of Victim Services. While CASA is primarily focused on assisting with the filing of applications for children and youth who have been the subject of abuse or neglect cases in Family Court, CASA can, as a Victim Assistance Program (VAP), assist others with applications or refer individuals to other VAP organizations in their community who can assist.
