

How can New Path Treatment Center help you?

Let us partner with you!

New Path Treatment Center is a licensed OASAS outpatient program designed to support individuals struggling with a substance use disorder. Treatment services follow a recovery model whereby participants are encouraged to develop their intrinsic motivation to make healthy lifestyle choices. Our goal is to support each client in their journey to long-term recovery. Treatment services are provided in a safe and confidential environment. The program also assists the family and significant others to cope with their loved one's recovery challenges and its impact on their lives.

Special Populations

- Dual Recovery - Co-occurring Disorders
- Homelessness
- Criminal Justice
- Transitional Aged Youth

How are participants referred?

Give us a call! You can initiate the process or be referred. We accept referrals from a wide range of agencies, including the criminal justice system.

Is there a fee for services?

Yes. Fees are provided through Medicaid, commercial plans or are based on a sliding fee scale.

What are the goals and objectives?

- Achieve and sustain long-term recovery
- Support individuals, the family, and significant others by providing education and advocacy
- Design person-centered recovery plans conducive to meeting the needs of the individual
- Identify and attain vocational and educational goals
- Build community supports

How does this program benefit participants & the community?

Substance use disorders are treatable and can have positive outcomes for the individual, family and community.

Recovery is a process and a lifelong journey. We are here to support you without judgement. We believe that “people do better when they know better”.

Let's take this journey together.

Testimonial

"When I started at the New Path Treatment Center, I was very scared at first and confused with different issues and relationships in my life. It was in New Path Treatment Center that I talked about them and got my feelings out. I also received feedback from my group to help me make some decisions and set some boundaries up. I had two great counselors, and it was during my one-on-one counseling sessions that I really was able to open up and talk about my inner fears. They listened which really meant a lot and gave me direction which I trusted and followed. I don't think I could've made it without their help. I'm clean today, I have my family back in my life, I have true friends in my life, I now have college credits and I have been accepted into a University. It truly is possible to stop using drugs." –
