Outcome

Regardless of the reason behind one's need to shoplift, shoplifting is a crime. The STOPLIFT Program's goal is to educate offenders of the consequences and effects of shoplifting and how to be an effective shopper.

How long is the STOPLIFT Program?

STOPLIFT is a one-day virtual class. Classes are available Monday through Friday.

Do participants receive any long-term help?

Yes. Each class member meets individually with the screener. During these meetings, the screener will work with the participant to identify any needs he/she may have. An additional referral for further assistance will be made where necessary.

Who conducts STOPLIFT?

Trained educators and counselors, with vast experience working with people involved in the criminal justice system, conduct the STOPLIFT program/course. In addition, a group facilitator and screener run the group exercises and conduct individual interviews with class participants.

Is there a fee for STOPLIFT?

Yes. There is an intake fee for STOPLIFT. A sliding scale for the indigent is available for those who qualify. Please contact our program office for assistance.

What is STOPLIFT?

STOPLIFT is a unique remediation and education program for shoplifters. During a full-day virtual class, participants examine their motives, learn about the legal consequences of continued shoplifting, and analyze the cost of their crimes to society.
